PROFILE

Founded in 1996, Cristo Rey Jesuit High School remains committed to serving Spanish speaking families with limited financial means, who seek out a Jesuit, Catholic and college preparatory education for their children. Cristo Rey's innovative Corporate Work Study Program enables all of our students to earn approximately 70% of their annual tuition by working one day a week at an entry-level position for a corporation or nonprofit agency across the Chicago area. Through its dual language curriculum, Cristo Rey nurtures students as they grow into fully bilingual and biliterate Latino leaders.
